STUDENT AFFAIRS APPEAL

Students may appeal a decision made by a Student Affairs committee, or appeal a decision based upon policy (i.e., dismissal from the program due to academic performance). The decisions of the Student Affairs Appeal process are final.

To submit a Student Affairs Appeal, use the electronic form found on the SPS website on the Forms and Documents page (https://sps.northwestern.edu/main/forms-and-documents.php). Students must include all relevant documents and evidence to support their appeal. Electronic supporting documents (doctors' notes, etc.) may be emailed to spspetitions@northwestern.edu or delivered to the SPS Registrar's Office on the Chicago campus.
