Academic Accommodations

The Northwestern University AccessibleNU (<https://www.northwestern.edu/accessiblenu/>) unit is responsible for the academic accommodation determination and coordination process for students with disabilities. Reasonable accommodations are individualized and flexible based on the nature of the need and the academic environment. SPS students seeking disability accommodations should connect with AccessibleNU (<https://www.northwestern.edu/accessiblenu/students/>) to notify that unit of needs and begin the intake process to register their accessibility needs as early as possible, ideally prior to the start of courses. Contact ANU (<https://www.northwestern.edu/accessiblenu/about-us/contact-us/>) at accessiblenu@northwestern.edu.

Students who wish to discuss and request accommodations based on pregnancy, childbirth, or related conditions, should contact the Title IX Coordinator at TitleIXCoordinator@northwestern.edu.
