DOmMENTARY MEDIA

https://docmedia.northwestern.edu/

Degree Types: MFA

The Master of Fine Arts in Documentary Media (https://docmedia.northwestern.edu) is a professional degree that provides students with the knowledge and skills needed to create compelling documentaries and other kinds of media using documentary methods. This program encourages connectivity across disciplines, formats, and genres. It equips students with a diverse set of skills to tell meaningful stories and pursue creative and professional opportunities.

Participants will make traditional documentaries, apply narrative techniques to documentary forms, and apply documentary techniques to narrative or emergent media projects. Over the course of this two-year program, students will learn, work and grow together to form a close-knit artistic community.
