

ASIAN HUMANITIES MINOR

The Asian Humanities Minor is designed for students who do not require or are unable to pursue extensive language training, but who still wish to make a serious commitment to the study of Asian cultures. Students may choose, in consultation with the director of undergraduate studies, either a geographic area of focus (China, Japan, Korea, South Asia, or Comparative) or a thematic concentration (literary studies, film, media, etc.) to provide focus and depth to their course of study.

In some cases, up to two courses taken abroad may be counted towards the minor with the approval of the director of undergraduate studies and pending departmental review. For more information about the review process, please contact the director of undergraduate studies.
