

GLOBAL HEALTH STUDIES MINOR

Course	Title
Minor Requirements (7 units)
2 core courses
All students complete:
GBL_HLTH 201-0	Introduction to Global Health <sup>1</sup>
Plus one of the following: <sup>2</sup>
GBL_HLTH 302-0	Global Bioethics
or GBL_HLTH 320-0	Qualitative Research Methods in Global Health or GBL_HLTH 318-0	Community-based Participatory Research Course
2 additional GBL_HLTH courses <sup>3</sup>
3 elective courses. Elective credits can be fulfilled by pre-approved health-related courses from various departments, as listed on the GHS major page and program website. Courses taken abroad can be counted as electives provided they are NU or NU-affiliated study abroad programs and the courses have been pre-approved for GHS elective credit. Study abroad courses taken that are not NU affiliated need prior approval from the DUS.

<sup>1</sup> GBL_HLTH 301-0 (Introduction to International Public Health) from Spring 2022 or earlier may be applied in lieu of GBL_HLTH 201-0.

<sup>2</sup> GBL_HLTH 390-0 may be used in substitution when the topic is either (Re)Mixing Qualitative Methods, or Quantitative Methods: Turning Numbers into a Story. If Community Based Participatory Research was completed as a topic under GBL_HLTH 390-0 prior to Spring 2023, rather than as GBL_HLTH 318-0, that may also be applied.

<sup>3</sup> GBL_HLTH 399-0 Independent Study and courses taken abroad may not be counted toward this requirement.

Note:

- Students may elect to study abroad (<https://globalhealthstudies.northwestern.edu/academic-programs/study-abroad/>) as part of their Global Health Studies curriculum.
- A list of eligible elective courses can be found on the Global Health Adjunct Major (<https://catalogs.northwestern.edu/undergraduate/arts-sciences/global-health-studies/global-health-studies-adjunct-major/>) page of this Catalog. Refer also to the Global Health Studies website for updates and occasional offerings.
