JEWISH STUDIES

jewish-israel-studies-center.northwestern.edu

Jewish Studies refers to the study of Judaism, Jewish history, Jewish identity and Jewish culture over time and around the world. Our professors rely on tools of historical research, textual analysis, ethnography, political science, and more as they seek to understand and teach these topics. Jewish Studies is truly an interdisciplinary way of analyzing and understanding the world!

Jewish Studies courses are open to students of all backgrounds. While some of the students who take our classes are Jewish, many are not. We offer a major and a minor for anyone looking to go deeper into the study of Jewish experience. On the other hand, if you are just looking for something a little different from what you usually study, you will be glad to know that many of our courses satisfy Weinberg College distribution requirements.

Jewish Studies also partners with the Middle East and North African Languages Program (https://mena-languages.northwestern.edu) to provide Hebrew language courses, which are offered at three levels.

In addition to courses with the JWSH_ST prefix, Jewish Studies courses are offered by many departments and programs. The following is a sample; a list of courses being taught this academic year is available on the program website (https://www.jewish-israel-studies-center.northwestern.edu/undergraduate/courses/):
