Additional Requirements (30 units)
Concentration Outside the School of Communication (6 units)
A field of concentration outside the School of Communication (normally one of the disciplines of the Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences), consisting of at least 6 units of credit; of these 6, at least 3 must be 300- or 400-level courses (courses taken to satisfy the School of Communication distribution requirement may be applied to the field of concentration if they fall within the discipline in which the student chooses to concentrate; a non–School of Communication minor, dual major, or adjunct major satisfies this requirement)

Language Requirement
Proficiency in a classical or modern foreign language equivalent to the work covered in a second-year college-level course (proficiency is established in precisely the same manner as in the Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences; see foreign language requirements (https://catalogs.northwestern.edu/undergraduate/arts-sciences/#schoolrequirementstext)).

Distribution Requirements (18 units)
18 units of credit outside the department, including 3 units of credit from each of the three School of Communication distribution areas: science, mathematics, and technology; individual and social behavior; and humanities and fine arts.

Electives
Electives in communication and other areas to complete a minimum of 42 units of credit.

Honors in Communication Studies Major
The Undergraduate Honors Program in Communication Studies offers an opportunity for highly motivated Communication Studies majors to conduct original scholarly research. Each student works closely with faculty to produce an original research project in an interest area determined by the student. Seniors who successfully complete the program will be eligible to graduate with departmental honors.
